Delivery Strategy Review Questions

5.	Why do you want to use multiple delivery strategies into a lesson?
6.	When presenting with your co-instructor Elizabeth, she asks for a couple of volunteers and hands them each a script for a role play exercise and tells them "you have 10 minutes to review and be ready to perform when we get back from break". The participants look at each other and hesitantly say ok.  What may be some of the reasons for their hesitant reaction?
7.	When preparing a field trip, your supervisor tells you to find an alternative way to deliver the training due to costs. You feel very strongly about the value a field trip will impact the lesson. What suggestions will you provide your supervisor should he or she not change their mind?
