Searching OGE Informal Advisory Letters and Memoranda and Formal Opinions Online via GPO Access

This database, sponsored by the U.S. Office of Government Ethics (OGE) contains informal advisory letters and memoranda and formal opinions on how to interpret and comply with the conflict of interest, post-employment, standards of conduct, and financial disclosure requirements in the executive branch.

To conduct an effective search of the OGE web site please refer to the search tips and examples provided in the section "How to Search for Documents on the OGE Web Site via GPO Access." For information on how to search the text of documents retrieved from a search please see "How to Search Text of Documents on the Search Results List."

To search for Advisory Opinions on the OGE site enter terms in the search box. Do not use quotes except as specified in the example below. This search engine is provided as a service by the Government Printing Office (GPO). See note for further information.
