6. Frank, one of you fellow instructors, is just about to finish up his lesson presentation. He wraps up his lesson by saying, "Are there any more questions?" None of the students respond; therefore, he looks to the back of the room and introduces the next instructor, Sally, who is instructing for the first time. Sally looks surprised and quickly scurries to pick up her presentation materials to take to the front of the class.

What might be some reasons for Sally's reaction?

7. Why should an instructor conduct a summary in the conclusion?
